WALTER HAYLES
Editor

In the words of Aesop, "Union gives strength." Our school - its objectives, its philosophy, its traditions, its aspirations, its very existence - exemplifies this fact in spirit and in deed. Therefore, it is with pride that we, the members of the 1964 Tiger Staff, present the following pages with the hope that you will be ever mindful that there is "Strength in Unity."

Dedication

MRS. ADDIE C. BREWER

In a fond gesture of appreciation for the years of loyalty and service to us and our school, we dedicate the 1964 edition of The Tiger to you, Mrs. Addie C. Brewer.

Your kind patience, your ready smile, and your unfailing cooperation have sustained us in ways we ourselves cannot enumerate. We hope that in some small measure this expression will reward you for such richness and growth you have contributed to our lives here. Thank you for being so much Ballard-Hudson; thank you for being our own.

Foreword

As our tomorrows fade into yesterdays, we feel a spontaneous necessity to grasp the eternity of moments which have fretted their infinity of truth into the changing course of our lives. Our bold strength, which has thrived upon our ability to juxtapose the least components into the scheme of larger factions, predicates itself upon the ability of those of us who are responsible for perfecting this Herculean task. That our hands may be ever sensitive to those unfaltering truths, that our fingers may reach ever toward the apex of realization, we must believe that there is "STRENGTH IN UNITY."

Dear Students:

Our leaders of tomorrow are our youth of today . . . Many of our young people now in school will provide our great democracy with its educational, spiritual, business and military leadership in the years that lie ahead.

I exhort each of you to develop your natural talents and abilities to their fullest capacity; set your goal in the classrooms for the highest academic and intellectual achievements; so that as you venture forth into the business world with its many and varied complexities, you can successfully attain that station in life commensurate with your knowledge and abilities.

Serve your community and others willingly and unselfishly. The more ways you find to serve, the more you contribute to your growth and stature; and the development, happiness and well-being of your community and others.

Sincerely,

B. F. Merritt, Jr.

AND ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS

SUPERINTENDENT JULIUS GHOLSON

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

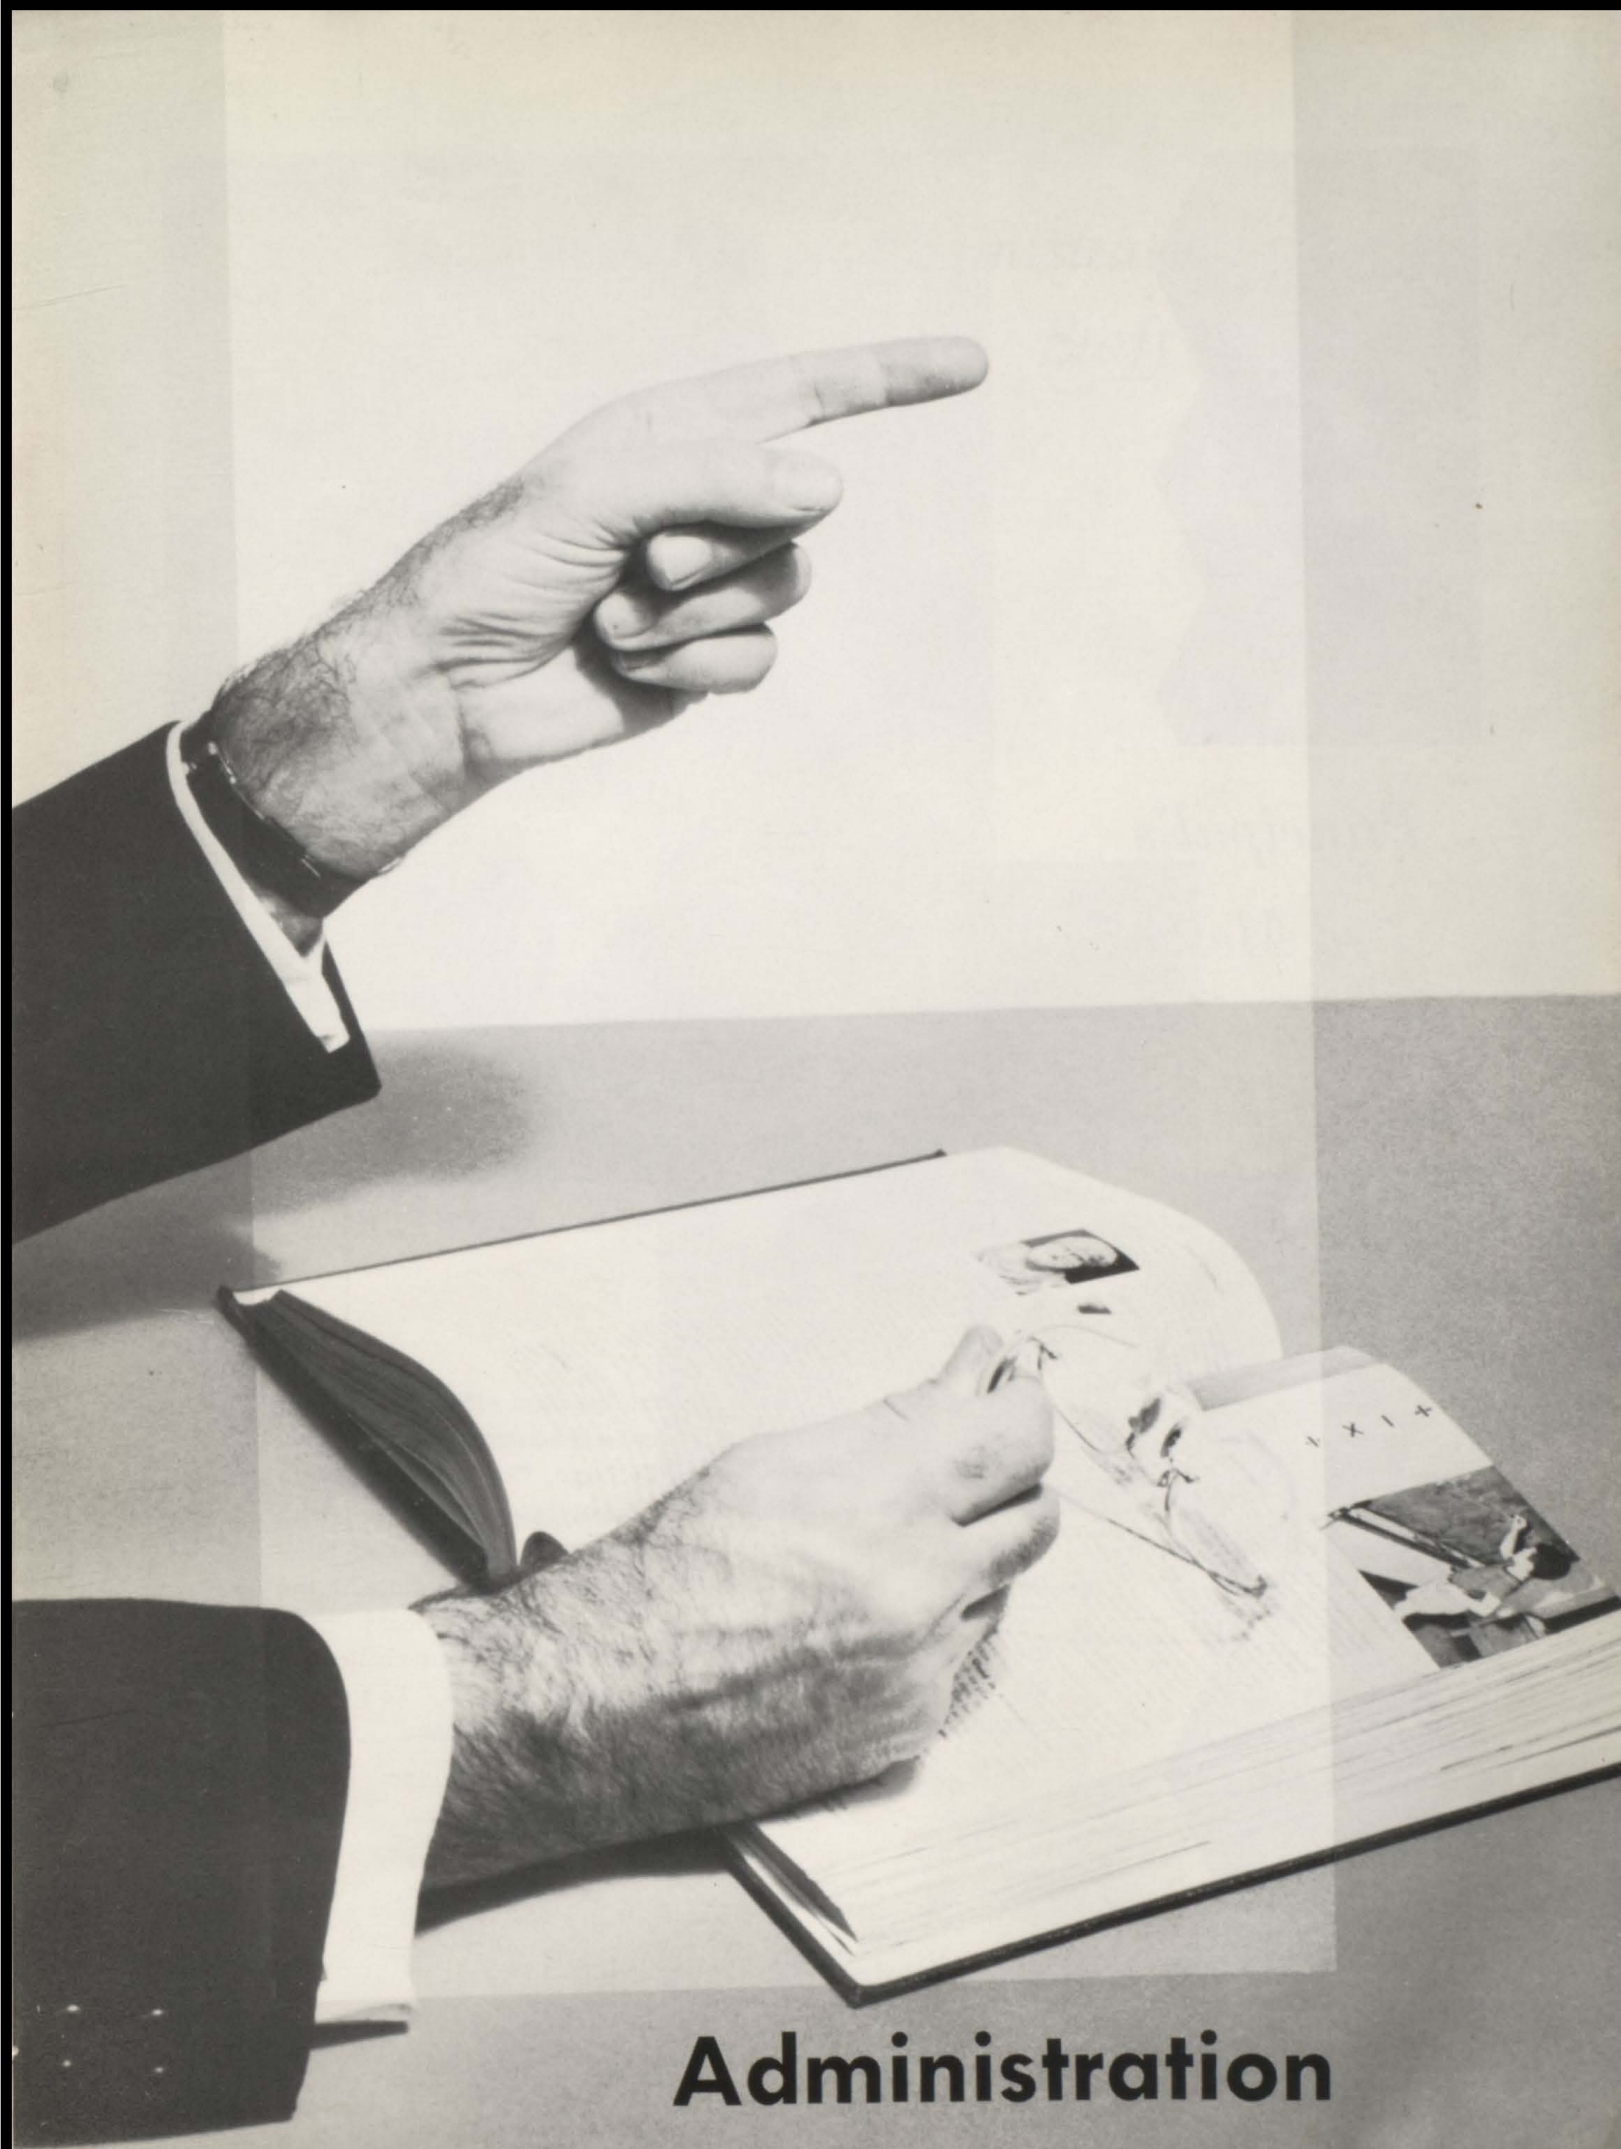

The editor and staff of the yearbook in cooperation with the administrative staff and faculty of the school are to be congratulated for this fine yearbook. It is one that you can be proud of.

Your theme, "Strength in Unity", is in step with our modern trend in life. It may be applied in business, church, civic and fraternal organizations, as well as community affairs on the local, state or national level. Unity in action leads to progress. Disunity brings chaos, stagnation, and retrogression. Unity has made our nation the most progressive, the most prosperous, the most powerful in the world. Let's continue to unite our efforts in order to keep it this way.

May the future years bring success and happiness to each and every graduate.

Principal's Message

PRINCIPAL R. J. MARTIN

In previous years the Tiger Staff has been widely lauded and commended for its unfailing wisdom and adroitness in the selection of a yearbook theme. The 1964 theme, "Strength in Unity," perpetuates this tradition. Since the early beginnings of our great American Heritage, men of foresight and vision have exemplified an ever increasing cognizance of the inferences implicit in "Together we stand, divided we fall." Certainly, today when men's very souls are on trial, there could not be a more challenging thought than that which your theme invokes. To former compliments I now add my most hearty congratulations!
